

Medical Coverage Defined :

Medical payments are independent of the liability limit and provide coverage for medical, surgical, hospital, and funeral expenses up to the limit shown in the policy. The medical coverage can be triggered regardless of the insured's liability for the claim and can include the policyholder, pilot, and crew members as well as the passengers. →